COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

FABRICUT, INC.,

Defendant.

Civil Case No.: 13-CV-248-CVE-PJC

CONSENT DECREE

Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) commenced this action alleging that Defendant Fabricut Inc., discriminated against Rhonda Jones in violation of Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), and Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (“GINA”), as further set forth in this lawsuit.

For purposes of settlement and compromise only, the parties advise the Court that they wish to resolve the instant controversy without the expense, delay, and burden of further litigation. The parties acknowledge that the settlement of this lawsuit and entry of this Consent Decree do not constitute an adjudication on the merits of the action. The parties also acknowledge and agree that the settlement of this lawsuit does not constitute an admission by Fabricut Inc., of any violation of the ADA, GINA, or any other law. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the terms of this Consent Decree are the product of negotiation.

The provisions in this Consent Decree are not intended to be adopted for any purpose other than this Agreement, and the parties understand that these provisions have no precedential effect on any pending or future charges.

THEREFORE, it is the finding of this Court, made on the pleadings, the record as a whole, and upon agreement of the parties, that: (i) this Court has jurisdiction over the parties to and the subject matter of this action; (ii) the requirements of the ADA and GINA shall be carried out by the entering of this Consent Decree; (iii) this Consent Decree is intended to and does resolve all matters arising under the ADA and GINA in this lawsuit; and (iv) the terms of this Consent Decree constitute a fair and equitable settlement of all issues arising under the ADA and GINA in this lawsuit.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

I. General Provisions

1. The Consent Decree is being entered by and with the consent of the parties for purposes of settlement.
2. Defendant shall not discriminate against any applicant or employee (“employee”) on the basis of their disability or perceived disability or genetic information.
3. Defendant shall not retaliate against any employee because such employee has: (i) opposed any employment practice alleged to constitute illegal discrimination, including but not limited to disability and genetic information discrimination; (ii) participated in an investigation concerning or related to allegations of such discrimination; and/or (iii) participated in this lawsuit and/or the underlying EEOC investigation of the charge which formed the predicate for this lawsuit.

II. Relief for Charging Party

A. Monetary Relief

1. Within fifteen (15) days of the entry of the Consent Decree by the Court and after Charging Party provides Defendant with a fully executed Tax Form W-9, Defendant shall pay to Charging Party via check the amount of $50,000.00 (Fifty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars) as compensatory damages, along with a completed Tax Form 1099 at the end of the calendar year for such amount. Defendant shall designate the compensatory damages payment as "other income" on IRS Form 1099.

B. Confirmation of Compliance

1. Within twenty (20) days of the entry of the Consent Decree, Defendant shall deliver to Patrick Holman, Senior Trial Attorney, EEOC, Oklahoma City Area Office, 215 Dean A. McGee Ave., Ste. 524, Oklahoma City, OK., 73102, counsel of record for Plaintiff EEOC, a photocopy of the check to Charging Party, described in Paragraph II.A.1, as confirmation of receipt of payment.

III. Injunctive Relief, Training, and Monitoring

A. Notice Posting and Policy

1. Such Notice shall remain posted for six (6) months.

2. Defendant shall review and/or revise and/or create personnel policies to communicate and implement the requirements and prohibitions of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). c. Only refer applicants for post-offer health assessments in compliance with the law and current regulations that provide for a specific individualized assessment by the examining physician of: (1) the applicant's present ability to perform the essential functions of the job with or without a potential reasonable accommodation; and (2) whether the individual may pose a direct threat to his/her or others' safety based on the most current medical knowledge or best available objective evidence. See 29 CFR §§ 1630.2(r) and 1630.14(b).

NOTICE

Federal law requires that there be no discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of that person's race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age or genetic information with respect to hiring, compensation, promotion, discharge, or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), prohibits private employers, state and local governments, employment agencies and labor unions from discriminating against qualified individuals with disabilities in job application procedures, hiring, firing, advancement, compensation, job training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

Under Title II of the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA), it is illegal to discriminate against employees or applicants because of genetic information. GINA prohibits the use of genetic information in making employment decisions, restricts employers and other entities from requesting, requiring or purchasing genetic information, and strictly limits the disclosure of genetic information.

Fabricut Inc., will comply with all federal laws regarding employment, particularly GINA and the ADA and will not discriminate in hiring as against individual applicants with regard to his or her genetic information, disability or perceived disability.

Further, Fabricut will not take any action against any person because they, or someone closely associated with them (e.g. friend, relative, in-law, etc.), have exercised their rights under the law. Should you be retaliated against because you, or someone associated with you, have opposed any practice made unlawful by federal employment laws enforced by the EEOC or for having filed a charge of discrimination, testified, assisted, or participated in an investigation, proceeding, or litigation under federal employment laws enforced by the EEOC or in any other way been discriminated against while employed by or applying for employment with Fabricut Inc., you may seek assistance from:
