Case No. 1:14-cv-292-SEB-TAB

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER AGAINST ITT EDUCATIONAL SERVICES, INC.

Plaintiff, the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (the “Bureau”), commenced this civil action on February 26, 2014 against Defendant ITT Educational Services, Inc. under sections 1031(a), 1036(a), 1054(a), and 1055 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (“CFPA”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531(a), 5536(a), 5564(a), and 5565, alleging, among other things, violations of section 1036(a)(1) of the CFPA, which prohibits unfair, deceptive, and abusive acts or practices.

The Bureau and the Trustee for ITT have agreed to settle the Bureau’s claims against ITT and, by and through counsel, request that the Court enter this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order (“Order”).

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 5565(a)(1) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1345, and 1367.
2. On September 16, 2016, ITT and its affiliated debtors, ESI Service Corp. and Daniel Webster College, Inc., filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), commencing bankruptcy cases pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Indiana, Indianapolis Division (the “Bankruptcy Court”), jointly administered in the case captioned In re ITT Educational Services, Inc., Case No. 16-07207-JMC-7A (the “Bankruptcy Proceeding”).

3. Deborah J. Caruso has been appointed chapter 7 trustee for ITT and its affiliated debtors. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 323, the Trustee is vested with the power to administer all assets that comprise ITT’s bankruptcy estate and has authority to act on behalf of ITT, and has the capacity to sue and be sued.

4. The Trustee is not operating the business of ITT and is proceeding with an orderly liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Trustee has agreed not to file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 721 or otherwise seek authorization to operate ITT’s business. Given that ITT’s assets are being liquidated and the Trustee has agreed not to seek permission to operate ITT’s business, the Bureau has agreed not to seek certain injunction, compliance, and reporting requirements.

5. The Court previously has held that the Bureau’s Complaint states claims upon which relief may be granted under the CFPA. Dkt. No. 49. The relief provided in this Order is appropriate and available pursuant to sections 1054 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5564 and 5565.

6. The Bureau alleges that the acts and practices described in its Complaint resulted in students enrolling in CUSO Loans that in many cases they did not want, did not understand, or did not even realize they were getting. The Bureau alleges that ITT students experienced substantial injury as a result of the CUSO Loans.

7. On March 14, 2017, the Bureau timely filed a proof of claim in the Bankruptcy Proceeding.

8. The Bureau and the Trustee (the “Parties”) agree to the entry of this Order, without adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in this dispute arising from the conduct of ITT alleged in the Complaint to the date this Order is entered.

9. The Bureau makes no allegations against the Trustee, but only against ITT.

10. The Trustee consents to entry of this Order, and accordingly waives service under Rule 4(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and waives all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. The Trustee also waives any claim that ITT may have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning prosecution of this action to the date of this Order. Each Party will bear its own costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees.

11. On November 30, 2018, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving a settlement agreement between the Trustee, solely in her capacity as Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee for ITT’s Estate, and a class of former ITT students. In that Order, the Court permanently enjoined the collection, assignment, or transfer of any of the CUSO receivables (student receivables owned by ITT and transferred to CUSO under the CUSO Program Agreements). On June 14, 2019 the Bankruptcy Court approved a settlement agreement between the Trustee, solely in her capacity as Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee for ITT’s Estate, and CUSO wherein the Trustee agreed that ITT’s Estate will not, directly or indirectly, service, enforce, or collect the CUSO loans and waived and relinquished any right, authority, or power, if any, the Estate may have with respect to the CUSO loans and the servicing and collection of the CUSO loans.

12. Pursuant to the Stipulated Final Judgment and Order in Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection v. Student CU Connect CUSO, LLC, No. 1:19-cv-02397-JRS-DLP (S.D. Ind. June 20, 2019), CUSO has ceased collection of the CUSO Loans and has agreed to permanently cease enforcing, collecting, or receiving any payment on CUSO Loans.

13. Given that ITT and CUSO have agreed to permanently cease all collection on the CUSO Loans, and given the limited amount of funds available in the Estate for distribution to former students, the Bureau has agreed not to seek a distribution in the Bankruptcy Proceedings.

14. The Bankruptcy Court has authorized the Trustee to enter into this Order by order dated July 25, 2019, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit B to the Agreed Motion For Entry of Stipulated Final Judgment. The Bankruptcy Court's order is now final and non-appealable.

15. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

30. Given that Defendant ITT's Estate is being liquidated and the Trustee is not operating and will not seek to operate the business of ITT, extensive compliance obligations by the Trustee are not warranted. more administered by the Trustee; or assets that could be the subject of a turnover motion by the Trustee;

b. The Trustee's filing of a motion under 11 U.S.C. § 363 in the Bankruptcy Proceeding to use, sell, or lease property of the Estate;

c. The Trustee's filing of any interim report to the Bankruptcy Court; and

d. The closure of the Bankruptcy Proceeding.

If notice of any of the foregoing events is not being provided to the Bureau on account of its position as a creditor in the Bankruptcy Proceeding, the Trustee must ensure that the Bureau receives notice at least 30 days after the event or as soon as practicable after learning of the event, whichever is sooner.

V.

33. Within 21 calendar days of receipt of a written request from the Bureau for non-privileged documents, records, or data, the Trustee will provide the Bureau reasonable access to any such materials that are reasonably available to her, consistent with the terms of the Protective Order Governing the Production of Discovery Materials by the Trustee entered in the Bankruptcy Proceeding on August 15, 2018. In re ITT Educational Services, Inc., No. 16-07207-JMC-7A (Bankr. S.D. Ind. Aug. 15, 2018) (ECF No. 2803).

34. Nothing in this Order shall limit the Bureau's lawful use of civil investigative demands under 12 C.F.R. § 1080.6, the use of examinations under Bankruptcy Rule 2004, or any other discovery device available under federal statute or the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the Trustee's ability to seek a protective order or other available relief in law, equity, or otherwise.

Any other modifications to this Order may be made only upon approval of the Court, upon motion by any party.

VIII.

RELEASE

36. The Bureau releases and discharges Defendant ITT from all potential liability for violations of law that the Bureau has or might have asserted based on the practices described in the Complaint, to the extent such practices occurred before the Effective Date and the Bureau knows about them as of the Effective Date. The Bureau may use the practices described in this Consent Order in future enforcement actions against Defendant ITT and its affiliates, including, without limitation, to establish a pattern or practice of violations or the continuation of a pattern or practice of violations or to calculate the amount of any penalty. This release does not preclude or affect any right of the Bureau to determine and ensure compliance with the Order, or to seek penalties for any violations of the Order.

37. This Order shall not prejudice or otherwise negatively affect the Bureau's claims against any other party. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to preclude the Bureau from pursuing claims against other parties based on the practices described in the Complaint.

38. Nothing in this Order is intended to permit, nor does the Bureau assert, a claim against the Trustee in her personal capacity.

IX.RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

39. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over matters pertaining to the Order for purposes of its construction, modification, and enforcement; provided, however, that nothing herein shall divest the Bankruptcy Court of its jurisdiction over the Bankruptcy Proceeding. The Parties may jointly seek to modify the terms of the Order, which may be modified only by Court order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
